Logista Italia Achieves ISO 37001 Certification for Anti-Bribery Management System

Issued by Bureau Veritas Italia, the certification acknowledges Logista's commitment to preventing corruption and promoting an ethical and transparent corporate culture

Rome, 23 October 2025

Logista Italia has obtained the UNI ISO 37001 certification for its Anti-Bribery Management Systems, issued by Bureau Veritas, a global leader in certification and compliance verification services.

This important recognition highlights the company's commitment to promoting a corporate culture based on integrity, transparency, and accountability through the adoption of effective control procedures across all business activities. It also reinforces Logista's role as a reliable partner within the market ecosystem in which it operates.

Bureau Veritas Italia conducted thorough audits of the management system implemented by Logista, identifying as a key strength “the strong commitment from the company's top management regarding anti-bribery efforts”. These audits confirmed that the system meets the stringent requirements set by the ISO 37001 standard.

The ISO 37001 certification adds to the other certifications obtained by Logista in recent years, as well as to the various risk prevention systems implemented by the company, as part of an integrated compliance approach. It confirms the company's utmost attention to all its stakeholders through a sustainable growth model focused on continuous improvement.

Helèna Ravasini, Legal & Compliance Director at Logista Italia, commented: “This certification is a tangible confirmation of Logista's commitment to upholding the highest ethical and regulatory standards. Promoting a culture of integrity is a priority in all our business activities. We are proud to be considered a benchmark in our sector, thanks also to the continuous strengthening of our staff's skills in transparency and accountability”.
